

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC

Employee Handbook

Effective August 15, 2015

This manual is merely a summary of current policies of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. Nothing in this manual alters the fact that all employees of the company are employed “at will”. Employment may be terminated with or without cause or notice at the will of either the employee or company. Neither this manual nor any of its contents is an employment contract, an offer to enter an employment contract, or provides employees with any contract rights.

WELCOME TO HOOSIER OVERDOORS, LLC

Welcome to Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. At Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, we are optimistic about the future and hope that your employment with us will be mutually rewarding. We look forward to an enjoyable and productive working relationship with you.

It is our goal at Hoosier Overdoors, LLC to outperform the competition in the areas of employment, service and safety. Pursuant to this goal, we strive to provide high quality products and services to our clients and customers. The work and attitude of our employees is important to the success of our company.

This handbook has been prepared for employees of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. As an employee of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, you should review the handbook and become familiar with all of the policies. Following your review of the handbook, you are to sign and return an Acknowledgement Form that will be provided to you. (A copy of the form can be found at the last page of this handbook.)

This handbook is only a summary of current personnel policies of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC compiled for convenient reference. Neither the handbook nor any policy set forth herein is a contract of employment, an offer to enter into a contract of employment, or provides employees any contract rights. No contract of employment is being offered or implied. No contract of employment is valid and binding on the Company unless it is in writing and signed by the President.

The employees of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC are “at will” employees. This means that Hoosier Overdoors, LLC may terminate the employment of any employee at any time for any reason, or no reason at all, and the employee may terminate their employment at any time for any reason, or no reason at all. Employment is for an indefinite period and is subject to change in conditions, benefits, and operating policies.

The information contained in this document is in summary form and is intended to give you an overview of what is expected. Many items covered here may be covered in more detail in other company documents, which documents are controlling. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC reserves the right to at any time supplement, revise, revoke or rescind any part or all of this handbook or any or all of the benefits or policies set forth herein.

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC reserves sole discretion to interpret this handbook or any policy or benefit contained in this handbook.

EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

Statement of Equal Opportunity

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is an equal opportunity employer and will not discriminate in recruiting, hiring, training, promotion, transfer, discharge, compensation or any other term or condition of employment on the basis of race, religion, color, age (over age 39), sex, national origin, or on the basis of disability if the employee can perform the essential functions of the job, with a reasonable accommodation if necessary. Any employee who is aware of discriminatory conduct or who has any concern about a possible violation of this policy should immediately report the conduct or concern to his or her supervisor, designated human resource personnel or any corporate officer.

Discrimination and Harassment

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC disapproves of and strictly prohibits comments or actions by anyone that may create an offensive or hostile work environment for any employee because of the employee's race, color, religion, age, sex, marital status, national origin, disability, ancestry, or medical condition. This policy extends not only to prohibiting unwelcome sexual advances and offensive sexual jokes, innuendos, or behaviors, but also prohibits offensive conduct related to or based upon factors other than sex.

Employees who believe they are victims of harassment or who are aware of harassment should immediately report the situation to a supervisor, the director of human resources, a designated human resources representative or any manager or corporate officer. An employee who thinks he or she is a victim of harassment may discuss the offensive conduct with the offender(s) before reporting it to management, but is not required to do so.

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC will promptly investigate complaints or reports of harassment. The investigation will be conducted, and complaints will be handled in a confidential manner to the extent realistically feasible. When warranted by the investigation, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC will take immediate and appropriate corrective action. Such action may include disciplinary action against the offender(s), which may range up to and include dismissal, depending on the severity of the conduct as assessed by Hoosier Overdoors, LLC.

No retaliation will be permitted against an employee who registers a complaint or reports a harassment incident, or against any employee who provides testimony as a witness or who otherwise provides assistance to any complaining or reporting employee, or who provides assistance to Hoosier Overdoors, LLC in connection with the investigation of any complaint or report.

After Hoosier Overdoors, LLC has taken appropriate corrective action to resolve a complaint or report of harassment, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC will make follow-up inquiries after an appropriate interval to insure that the harassment has not resumed and retaliation has not been suffered. However, victims and witnesses are not required to wait for follow-up. If harassment resumes or retaliation occurs, the victim or witness is encouraged to contact an appropriate Hoosier Overdoors, LLC supervisor, human resources representative, officer or other company manager immediately so Hoosier Overdoors, LLC may promptly and effectively act.

Immigration Law Compliance

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is required by federal immigration laws to verify the identity and work authorization of all new employees. In keeping with the obligation, documentation that shows each person's identity and legal authority to work must be inspected. Each new employee must also attest to his/her identity and legal authority to work on an I-9 Form provided by the federal government. This verification must be completed as soon as possible after an offer of employment is made and in no event more than three (3) business days after an individual is hired and before the individual begins work. A copy of this form will be provided to you for your completion. All offers of employment with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC are conditioned upon furnishing evidence of identity and legal authority to work in the United States in compliance with the federal law. Providing falsified documents of identity and eligibility to work in the United States will result in cancellation of your consideration for employment or dismissal if employed. Every rehired employee must also satisfy this requirement. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure that the work authorization on file is current. The Department of Homeland Security recommendation is to apply for renewed authorization a minimum of ninety (90) days in advance of expiration. Inability to provide renewed authorization on or prior to the expiration date of the original document will result in the employee's immediate termination.

Health Requirements

All employees shall be of sufficient good health to properly discharge their duties. Employees who have an infectious disease shall not be permitted to work for the duration of communicability. If an employee becomes ill or injured while on duty, it is his/her responsibility to report such illness or injury to his/her supervisor immediately. Failure to do so may result in a loss of potential benefits for that illness or injury. If an employee has excessive absences from work due to illness, his/her physical condition may be reviewed to determine the ability to continue in that position, and a physician's release that he/she is able to work may be required.

Drug-Free Workplace

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is committed to providing a work environment that is free from alcohol and illegal drugs, and prescription or over-the-counter drugs that impair the performance of essential job functions or increase risk of injury, death, or property loss. The costs of alcohol and drug abuse are staggering and are manifested by accidents, tardiness, absenteeism, property damage, increased occupational injury costs, increased health insurance costs, decreased productivity, the cost of replacing and retraining new employees, and employee theft. In an effort to minimize the effects of alcohol and drugs in the workplace, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC has adopted the following policy.

A. The following are prohibited:

- i. Purchase, use, possession, distribution or being under the influence of alcohol on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client property, during working hours or at any time while on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business.
 - ii. Purchase, sale, possession, use, manufacture, distribution or being under the influence of any illegal drug at any time during your employment by Hoosier Overdoors, LLC; or
 - iii. Use or being under the influence of any prescription or non-prescription (over the counter) drug that may adversely affect your performance of the essential functions of your job or increase the risk of injury, death or property loss of you or others.
 - iv. Purchase, sale, use, distribution or possession, during working hours or while on company business, of any drug paraphernalia, including, but not limited to, any tools, equipment, supplies or materials used, designed or intended for the illegal or improper use of any drug.
 - v. Reporting to or being at work with a measurable quantity of any alcohol, drug, intoxicant or narcotic in the blood or urine (except for any prescribed or over-the-counter drug of the type and at a level determined in the sole opinion of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or its designee as neither interfering with performance of essential job functions nor increasing the risk of injury, death or property loss of you or others).
- B. Any employee of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC who at any time during his or her employment with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is charged with, or convicted of, violating any law, the basis of which violation in any way involves the use or being under the influence of alcohol or any drug shall immediately report the charge or conviction to his or her immediate supervisor or any company official and in all cases, no later than the beginning of the next work day.

Violation of any part of this policy (or any charge or conviction described in “B”) may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Smoking

Smoking is only permitted in those places and at those times designated by Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. Do not smoke near any area where flammable or combustible materials, such as solvents, are used or stored. Other rules regarding smoking may apply depending on your work location. If you have any questions, ask your supervisor.

Confidentiality of Information

Confidential information of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, of any nature and in any form whatsoever, including, but not limited to, all data or information that is competitively sensitive or is not generally known or available to the public, client lists and files, and personnel records and data, shall be kept confidential and private and shall not be removed from Hoosier Overdoors, LLC premises without prior written authorization of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. Such confidential information shall only be used for the benefit of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC and its interests. Employees will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement, non-solicitation agreement and/or agreement not to compete containing such provisions as Hoosier Overdoors, LLC deems appropriate.

Employee Investigations

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC recognizes the importance of employees who are honest, trustworthy, qualified, and reliable. For purposes of furthering these concerns and interests, before hiring an individual, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC reserves the right to investigate the individual's prior employment history, personal and/or business references, educational background, and or other relevant information that is reasonably available. In hiring for certain positions, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC may review an applicant's credit report and criminal background, if any. Consistent with these practices, all job applicants will be asked to sign a Release of Information Authorization, which will include a release of liability for disclosure of information by a third party. To the extent permitted by law, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC reserves the right to exclude any applicant from consideration for employment, where the applicant refuses to sign the Release of Information Authorization form as requested.

In addition, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC may find it necessary from time-to-time to investigate current employees, where behavior or other relevant circumstances raise legitimate questions concerning work performance, reliability, honesty, trustworthiness, or potential threat to the safety of co-employees or others. Where appropriate, these investigations may include credit reports and criminal records, including appropriate inquiries about any criminal investigation or arrest that is pending further proceedings. Employees subject to such investigations are required to reasonably cooperate with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC to obtain relevant information, and may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination, for failure to do so.

All employees are strongly encouraged to immediately report any incidents of potentially threatening, harmful, or criminal behavior of co-employees, supervisors, customers, clients, vendors, or visitors.

Workplace Violence

The following are prohibited and will not be tolerated of any employee on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC premises or while on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business:

- a. Any direct or indirect harassing, intimidating, abusive or threatening language, actions or behavior.
- b. Any direct or indirect plan, threat or act of violence, injury, death or property damage (including, but not limited to fistfights, wrestling or other forms of physical fighting with or without weapons).
- c. Possession, use or display of a weapon on company premises or while on company business.

Any employee violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Safety Policy

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC wants every employee to enjoy a safe workplace. Employees must comply with all safety rules and policies (and rules and policies of clients when on client premises) and all requirements of OSHA- the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

In accordance with applicable law, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC has established a safety committee to constitute and have such duties as defined by applicable state law. Employee members of the safety committee will be paid for their time while attending committee meetings or while otherwise engaged in committee duties. Employees must comply with the injury prevention program adopted by the safety committee.

Please observe Hoosier Overdoors, LLC safety rules in every phase of your work, with particular emphasis on proper lifting techniques when handling heavy objects. You are required to participate in the safety effort of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC by working safely and attending safety sessions when offered. Incidents involving personnel are reviewed on a regular basis to identify safety hazards. If you should have an incident or injury or observe an unsafe condition, report it to your supervisor immediately, no matter how insignificant it may seem. Your particular job requirements may include additional specific safety guidelines, which you are required to observe and practice with no exceptions. You will not be subject to reprisal or retaliation for reporting unsafe conditions to management or outside enforcement authorities.

The following guidelines have been established as a part of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC's safety policy:

- The safe way is the right way to do each job. Shortcuts are not the way.
- Know your job procedures. If in doubt, ask your supervisor.
- Operate equipment only as authorized and with all safety guards in place.
- Report unsafe acts to your supervisor before someone is injured.
- Report unsafe conditions immediately to your supervisor.
- Report unsafe equipment to your supervisor right away. Do not attempt repairs no matter how skilled you feel you are.
- Report any incident right away (even if no injury) to your supervisor.
- At the scene of an incident, be helpful, courteous, and avoid argument or discussion of the situation. Get your supervisor immediately (documenting conditions helps us help you).
- Get medical aid even for small injuries. Delay can make it worse.
- Arrive at work rested, clean, and in good health. Be able to give full attention to your job.
- Report infections to your supervisor (which can be evidenced by conditions such as: skin eruption, boil, sore throat, vomiting, fever, etc.).
- If you feel ill at work, report to your supervisor. Get medical aid to protect yourself and others. Keep health tests up to date.
- Follow guidelines for health in the prevention of communicable diseases. These guidelines are for your health and safety and those with whom you work.

- Warning signs help you prevent incidents. Obey them! Remind others, too.
- If using chemicals, read labels carefully to follow safety warnings, mixing instructions, etc.
- Horseplay is NOT allowed. Practical jokes can cause serious injury.
- You are required to observe all safety notices posted and any specific safety requirements for your particular job.
- Violent acts in the workplace, including threats and intimidation are NOT allowed. This includes all threats, verbal or physical. Any such occurrences should be immediately reported to management.

Reporting Injuries

To ensure that proper attention is given and appropriate action taken when an injury occurs within the workplace, please follow these procedures:

1. Report the injury to your on-site supervisor immediately. If your supervisor is not immediately available, report to the manager or other authorized person. Seek or obtain medical attention if required.
2. Report the injury to your Hoosier Overdoors, LLC supervisor and/or designated human resources representative within 24 hours, or as soon as practical. Worker's Compensation laws require the processing of claims within reasonable time frames. All injuries/accidents MUST be reported promptly for claim submission.
3. If you are involved in or are a witness to an incident, you should provide information in order for the appropriate report to be completed. Please be aware of the importance of immediate action in recording all details of the incident.

Incident Reports

An incident report must be filled out and signed by any employees who witness an incident or injury immediately following the occurrence. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action. This policy is important to the safety and well being of all our employees.

During Work Activities

You must observe and comply with the following:

1. Use CAUTION when lifting any item. A two-person team must handle packaged or heavy items. Lifting heavy items requires a two-person lift. Remember, lift with your legs, not your back! Use assistive equipment, such as a dolly, when transporting heavy objects. If in doubt, consult your supervisor.
2. Do not use any existing or new equipment that you have not been trained to use.
3. Observe all safety precautions and/or manufacturer's specifications prescribed for use of equipment. Always consult your supervisor if in doubt.
4. No off-duty employee may perform any activities, of any nature, on the employer's premises or with the employer's equipment or goods.

5. The Company requires of its employees a “no heroes policy!” Do not place yourself in any situation that would compromise your safety or in any way would endanger you, your co-workers, or others.

Fire Emergency Procedures

The most frequent causes of fires are chemicals, grease, and careless smoking. In these conditions, a major fire can be only three minutes away from the "flashover" It is vital that you utilize the three major tactics: RESCUE, CONFINE, AND ALERT!

- First, RESCUE anyone in the immediate path of a fire.
- Second, CONFINE the fire. Shut doors and/or windows in the room or area where the fire is erupting. This will keep it from spreading into other areas, etc.
- Third, ALERT. Utilize your fire alarm system to tell the fire department about the fire.

After you have completed the above steps, only then can you consider fighting the fire. Make sure you use the correct extinguisher for the type of fire that you are fighting. Do not place your safety in jeopardy. If you cannot RESCUE, CONFINE or ALERT without unreasonable danger or risk, then don't!

EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

Hours of Work Schedule

The hours of your scheduled work shift will largely be determined by the operational needs of the department in which you are assigned. Some departments will have regular schedules, which rarely change from week to week, and other departments will have schedules that vary to meet the needs of the department or Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. If an employee has a specific schedule request, efforts may be made to accommodate that request, taking into account the operational needs of the department or Hoosier Overdoors, LLC as a whole. However, in all events, work schedule and schedule changes are determined at the sole discretion of the Hoosier Overdoors, LLC.

Every employee is responsible for knowing and following his or her work schedule, including, but not limited to, reading the schedule and schedule updates or changes, knowing start and end times or workdays, shifts, and breaks, complying with such times, and knowing when meetings are and attending such meetings on time. It is your responsibility to, if applicable, clock in and out at the designated times on your schedule. Any desired schedule changes must receive prior approval from your supervisor.

Attendance and Punctuality

When you accept a position with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC you assume obligations. One of those obligations is to perform the duties of your position during the times specified. You are expected to be punctual and keep absences to a minimum. Failure to report, unjustified or excessive absence or tardiness may result in discipline, up to and including discharge from employment. Additionally, punctuality and attendance are factors that may be taken into account when determining promotions, salary increases and qualification for other benefits.

Absenteeism

Definition of Absence: Absence is any time (other than tardiness described below) that you are scheduled to work and you fail to be present at the designated work location for all of the scheduled time or shift or if you fail to report to your workstation more than fifteen (15) minutes late. It includes time off for sickness, but does not include pre-approved time off for vacation, or leaves of absence, or for designated holidays when you are not scheduled to work.

Reporting Procedure: In case of an absence, you must first notify your supervisor, department manager or facility manager. Notification must be given each day you do not report to work at least one (1) hour prior to the beginning of your scheduled shift. If you must be absent after you report to work, notification must be given when you first learn that you must leave work, but (except in an emergency) no later than one hour before you must leave work. It is your responsibility to personally make the contact unless you are physically unable to do so, in which case, you should have someone else make the contact for you. You must give the reason for your absence and the expected date of your return.

One or more unreported or unjustified absences within any 12-month period may result in disciplinary action, (up to and including termination of employment). If you are absent for three (3) consecutive days without reporting to work or contacting your supervisor, you will be considered to have voluntarily resigned without notice at the end of the third day and your position may be filled.

Note: If you can provide an acceptable explanation, this policy may not apply. Such explanation may require substantiation and/or verification from sources other than you.

Excessive Absenteeism: Even if an absence is reported, you may be subject to disciplinary action (up to and including termination of employment) if you miss work too often. Examples of excessive absenteeism include, but are not limited to:

- a. Twelve full or partial days absent, consecutive or not, in any 12-month period.
- b. Three full or partial days absent, consecutive or not, in a 30-day period.
- c. Five full or partial days absent, consecutive or not, in any 6-month period.

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, in its sole discretion, will determine excessive absenteeism. Unless determined by Hoosier Overdoors, LLC to be an abuse, time off for medical/dental appointments, school activities (for you or your children), or other personal business will not be counted as excessive absenteeism if your supervisor approves it at least three business days in advance. However, this time off will be documented as an absence.

Tardiness

Definition of Tardiness: You are tardy any time you arrive at your workstation, or are not appropriately groomed, dressed and ready to work, at the beginning of your scheduled shift. Tardiness also includes returning late from breaks or meal periods. If you are more than fifteen (15) minutes late, it will be considered an absence.

Reporting Procedure: If you must be late for work, it is your responsibility to personally contact your supervisor at least one (1) hour prior to the beginning of your scheduled work shift unless you are physically unable to do so. If you cannot call, have someone call for you. Failure to report your tardiness will count toward excessive absenteeism or excessive tardiness, as the case may be.

Excessive Tardiness: Even if tardiness is reported, excessive tardiness will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Examples of excessive tardiness include, but are not limited to:

- a. Any tardiness on any three days in any 30-day period.
- b. Any tardiness on any five days in any 3-month period.
- c. Any tardiness on any twelve days in any 12-month period.

Conduct

The maintenance of extremely high standards of honesty, integrity, performance and conduct is essential to the proper performance of our business, the satisfaction of our clients and the maintenance of our clients' trust. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC expects its employees to have careful regard for our standards and avoid even the appearance of dishonesty or misconduct. Our employees are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a professional and courteous manner, to exercise good judgment in the discharge of their responsibilities, and to conduct themselves in a manner that can be supported by management.

Any misconduct or violation of the policies in this handbook or otherwise of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Following are examples of conduct that may result in such disciplinary action:

1. Unsatisfactory or careless performance or neglect of duties.
2. Failure to use or maintain Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client property in a proper manner.
3. Altering, removing or destroying Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client records and/or property.
4. Deliberate or careless damage to Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client property.
5. Inappropriate, malicious, disparaging or derogatory oral or written statements concerning Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, or any of its clients, employees or representatives.
6. Falsifying personal, client or Hoosier Overdoors, LLC records, including any employment application or other employment information, or any other records or documents related to the Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, its business or any of its clients, employees or representatives.
7. Excessive tardiness, absenteeism or abuse of any paid time off policy.
8. Failure to give proper notice of an expected absence.
9. Dishonesty of any kind, including theft or misappropriation of property of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, its employees, or past, current or prospective clients or representatives.
10. Possession, use or display of any weapon on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC premises or while on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business.
11. Possession, use or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol on the premises or while on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business.
12. Any conduct endangering, or any verbal or nonverbal threat to endanger, property, life, safety or health.
13. Disrespect for management, or any supervisor or employee or client of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, including insubordination, failure to perform any reasonable assignment, or obscene or abusive language or behavior.
14. Willful violation of HIPAA privacy laws.
15. Violations of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC harassment policy or any other form of unlawful or unethical conduct, harassment or discrimination.

16. Off-duty or pre-employment conduct that reflects or may adversely reflect on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC if the employee were to remain employed.

These examples are not all-inclusive, but merely illustrate the kind of conduct that may be detrimental to Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, its clients or employees. Employees may be discharged or disciplined for conduct not specifically mentioned in this handbook, as determined in the sole discretion of the Hoosier Overdoors, LLC.

Customer Relations

As an employee, you make a major contribution to our business growth. Your honesty, integrity, and competence in performing your job are necessary for customer satisfaction. Your ability to develop positive customer relations is essential to our job performance. If your duties include a support role, other employees should be treated as customers.

Dress Code

A neat professional appearance is a requirement at Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. It is expected that all employees will exercise good judgment and dress appropriately for their jobs. Any employee not dressed appropriately will be subject to discipline.

Appearance

Your personal appearance is an important part of the way you represent Hoosier Overdoors, LLC to the public. Customers form an opinion of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC from your appearance and attitude. Neat and conservative attire creates a favorable impression. Please refrain from eating, smoking, or chewing gum in the presence of customers. Such actions may be offensive to customers and portray an unacceptable image.

These are the factors you should consider:

1. Maintaining the highest standards relating to personal hygiene, including regular bathing and use of deodorant, brushing of teeth and using mouthwash as necessary, maintaining clean hands and fingernails at all times and the moderate use of cosmetics.
2. The nature of the work.
3. Safety considerations, such as necessary precautions when working near machinery.
4. The nature of the employee's public contact, if any, and the normal expectations of outside parties with whom the employee will work.
5. The prevailing practices of other workers in similar jobs.
6. The requirement of the Hoosier Overdoors, LLC's management that all employees are expected to exercise good judgment and dress appropriately for their jobs.
7. Any bandage worn must be kept clean and changed as often as necessary or appropriate. An employee with an open sore or wound is not permitted to handle any food products and may be restricted from other activities, especially in the health care area.

Please note: Your particular job may include more specific requirements, which will be provided by your supervisor.

Work Area

Hoosier Overdoors, LLC strives to make your working conditions as pleasant as possible. We ask your cooperation in keeping your work area neat and company equipment in good working order. The need for repairs or adjustments to mechanical equipment should be reported immediately to your supervisor. Secure confidential work papers and computer files away before leaving your office or work area for the day.

Telephone Courtesy and Usage

A large portion of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business is conducted over the telephone. All telephone calls, whether from customers, fellow employees, or outside business associates should be handled promptly and courteously.

You may make necessary local personal telephone calls during the workday as long as they do not interfere with daily business or your performance of your work. Personal calls must be short in duration and very limited in number. Personal long distance telephone calls generally are not permitted. Your supervisor must approve long distance telephone calls in advance and payment arrangements must be made prior to placing the call.

Please make note that all telephone calls are subject to monitoring for training, or other Hoosier Overdoors, LLC purposes.

Use of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC Equipment

Equipment and resources such as copier, fax, computers, laptops, smart phones, postage machines, e-mail, internet access, telephone, pagers, and voice mail systems are in place to facilitate effective day-to-day business operations. Employees may not use Hoosier Overdoors, LLC equipment or resources for personal use or benefit without prior supervisor approval.

Desks, Lockers, and File Cabinets

The Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or its clients may from time to time provide office space, desks, computers or file cabinets for employee use in the performance of employment responsibilities, or locker space for employee use while at work. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC does not guarantee the security of any locker and employees are responsible for furnishing their own locks. Any lock will be voluntarily and immediately removed at the direction of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is not responsible for any article or item placed in any office space, locker, desk, file cabinet or computer, or otherwise brought on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client premises or on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business, that is lost, damaged, stolen or destroyed. Weapons, explosives, alcohol and drugs are prohibited on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC premises, client premises or Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business and may not be placed in any office space, locker, desk or file cabinet. Employees have no privacy rights in any office space, locker, desk, file cabinet or computer (or their contents) on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client property, or provided by the Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or a client of the Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, for or on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC business. The Hoosier Overdoors, LLC reserves the right to inspect any such office space, locker, desk, file cabinet, computer, and their contents, and any other place or item on Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or client property, with or without advance notice or consent of any employee. Any person designated by the company or client may conduct such an inspection. Any employee who, upon request, fails or refuses to cooperate with any such inspection may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Personal Property

All employees are cautioned not to bring valuables or large amounts of cash to work. Purses and wallets should be kept with you or stored in a locked place at all times. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is not responsible for personal property that is lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed; this includes your personal vehicle or other means of transportation. If you ride a bicycle to work, be sure to securely lock it in the designated space. Employees are responsible for providing their own locking devices.

Packages

Supervisors, department managers, administrative officers, and security personnel have the authority to request that any employee open for inspection any package or other container brought, carried, in possession or found on, or taken from, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC premises. Any employee who refuses to comply with a request for inspection will be subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Gifts

To avoid a conflict of interest between what's good for our customers and what might be personally advantageous for an employee, we have set the following policy on accepting gifts:

1. Samples, T-shirts, hats, and desk accessories may be accepted, up to a total estimated value of all gifts from a particular customer or vendor at one time of $15.00 without prior approval of your supervisor. You must report all such gifts to your supervisor.
2. All other vendor or customer gifts, including activities, travel, merchandise, and contests, must be approved by your supervisor through use of a special form provided by him or her. Oral pre-approval is acceptable for meals only.
3. Solicitation of vendors or customers for any gift or money is not allowed.

Acceptance of any non-approved or non-qualifying vendor or customer gift may result in disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination of employment.

Outside Employment

Subject to other policies, including Conflict of Interest below, Hoosier Overdoors, LLC has no objection to an employee holding another job (in addition to his or her employment with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC) as long as he or she can effectively meet the performance standards for his or her position with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. However, we ask employees to think seriously about the effects that another job may have on their endurance, personal health and well being, performance, and effectiveness with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. Employees holding another job must remember that Hoosier Overdoors, LLC is the primary employer and is entitled to the loyalty and primary efforts of the employee while employed with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC.

All employees will be held to the same scheduling demands and standards of performance. We cannot make exceptions for those who also hold outside jobs. If an outside position interferes with the employee's ability to work for this Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, that employee will be subject to disciplinary action for tardiness and unsatisfactory attendance or work performance in accordance with normal disciplinary policy.

Conflict of Interest

During your employment with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, you are prohibited from directly or indirectly competing with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, including, but not limited to, providing, owning an interest in, or assisting any other person or entity that is in competition with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC or that provides any product, service or offering of a type that is the same or similar to that provided by Hoosier Overdoors, LLC from time to time. Additionally, during your employment with Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, you are prohibited from at any time directly or indirectly working for, assisting or owning an interest in any business or venture that constitutes a conflict of interest. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC will determine in its sole discretion whether any work or interest constitutes a violation of this policy. Before you begin to directly or indirectly work for, assist or own an interest in any other business or venture other than Hoosier Overdoors, LLC, you must notify your supervisor.

Supervisors

Questions about your job, pay, benefits, relations with your co-worker, policies and procedures or Hoosier Overdoors, LLC in general should be directed to your supervisor. Look to your supervisor for guidance and seek his/her assistance when you encounter difficulties. Cooperation and communication with your supervisor will promote a mutually beneficial work environment.

Each employee must follow the directions of his/her supervisor. Your supervisor is responsible for directing your work throughout your shift; evaluating your performance, providing instruction and guidance in your job, and taking any disciplinary action that may be necessary; though others at Hoosier Overdoors, LLC from time to time also may exercise one or more of these responsibilities. Disrespect of management or a supervisor, or disregard of the authority of either, will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

GENERAL PAYROLL INFORMATION

Employment Categories and Classifications

Each employee is categorized as either exempt or non-exempt. Ask your supervisor if you are not certain of your classification.

Non-Exempt employees are entitled to overtime pay. Overtime pay is paid to non-exempt employees at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's regular hourly rate of pay for each hour or portion of an hour (rounded to the nearest tenth of an hour) worked in excess of . For this purpose, the workweek begins at 12:01 a.m. Sunday and ends at 11:59 p.m. Saturday. Overtime must be authorized and approved by your supervisor in advance.

Exempt employees are not entitled to overtime pay.

In addition, each employee is classified as either a full-time or part-time employee.

A full-time employee is defined as a common law employee employed in a category designated by management and scheduled to work at least 35 hours per week, or 1,820 hours per year. Full-time classification does not include part-time, temporary or occasional employees.

A part-time employee is defined as a common law employee employed in a category designated by management and scheduled to work less than 35 hours per week, normally averaging 18-25 hours per week. Part-time classification does not include full-time, temporary or occasional employees.

Time Cards

Certain employees must record their time on time cards. Your supervisor will provide you with time cards for you to keep a current record of your time at work. You are responsible for maintaining an accurate current record of your working hours. Accordingly, you must use the time card to record the time you begin and end work each day, and the beginning and end of any split shift. You also must record on your time card when you are absent from work, for any reason whatsoever.

Your time card is the record on which you (and in some cases Hoosier Overdoors, LLC) are paid. Consequently, it is important that your time card be accurate and complete and not be lost, falsified, or mutilated. If your time card is lost you may not be paid. If you become aware of a mistake on your time card, you must immediately inform your supervisor and/or the payroll liaison with the necessary correction.

Falsification of your time card (including, but not limited to hours) will result in immediate termination.

Payroll

Different categories of employees are paid on different schedules. Most Hoosier Overdoors, LLC employees are paid on a weekly basis every Thursday.

Please contact your supervisor with any questions concerning the payroll process and your pay.

Payroll Deductions

Certain deductions are required by law to be taken from everyone's pay while others are employee authorized. Deductions required by law include federal withholding tax, social security and Medicare contributions, and in most states, state withholding tax. Deductions from pay also will be made in accordance with any legally binding order or garnishment. Employees also may voluntarily elect to make certain deductions from pay for certain employee benefits offered from time to time by Hoosier Overdoors, LLC. Employee authorized deductions are those which may include premium payments for benefits.

Performance Reviews

Your performance is reviewed in writing by your supervisor at least annually. It may also be reviewed at any time at your supervisor's discretion or upon your request. The reviews are designed to provide an opportunity to discuss your position, review performance, and set goals and objectives for future performance. Any adjustments to compensation are made based on a number of considerations, including performance.

Generally, your compensation is reviewed in conjunction with your annual review. More frequent evaluations do not include a review of, or adjustments to, compensation.

Change of Personal Status

Notify your supervisor or Client Support Department of any changes in your name, address, telephone number, or marital status. This insures your benefit and employment records are current.

BENEFITS

NOTE: Any benefits or benefit plans described in these policies are convenient summaries only. An employee's eligibility for or rights to any benefits will be subject to and governed by the governing benefit plan documents and applicable law, as either may be amended from time to time. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC reserves to itself and to any administrator or fiduciary of any benefit or benefit plan described or referred to in this handbook (or any other benefit or benefit plan of Hoosier Overdoors, LLC), the discretionary authority to determine eligibility of any employee or claimant for or under any such benefit or plan, pursuant to the terms of the relevant plan document and applicable law, as either may be amended from time to time, and to interpret and construe the terms of any such benefit or plan. Hoosier Overdoors, LLC further reserves the right to at any time add, amend, modify, supplement or terminate any benefit, benefit plan or employee benefit. For answers to any questions you may have regarding any benefit or benefit plan, first refer to the applicable plan documents. For additional assistance, you may contact the plan administrator listed in the plan documents.
